Re: Spring Hill Man Charged with Attempted Murder – 2025-00156489

Date: March 15, 2025

---

On 03-14-2025 at approximately 9:14 p.m., Hernando County Sheriff's deputies responded to a residence on Higgins Street in Spring Hill in reference to a shooting.

The victim told dispatchers she was involved in a verbal argument with her ex-husband, Jerimiah Andrew Carr DOB/11-06-1980, who she currently shares a residence with along with their two children.

The argument started over a call she received from her new boyfriend. Following that call, she said Carr became upset. While standing in the garage, Carr grabbed a power drill and threatened her with it. Fearing for her safety, the victim said she armed herself with a knife.

In response, Carr went into the house where he retrieved a firearm. He then returned to the garage where he displayed a firearm that he had tucked in his waistband while telling the victim, "I'd kill you if I could get away with it."

Moments later Carr pointed the firearm in the direction of the victim and fired a single shot. The bullet did not strike the victim.

The victim then exited the home and called 9-1-1. The children were not home at the time of the incident.

The suspect, who deputies noted appeared intoxicated, declined to speak to investigators at the scene.

As a result of the investigation and evidence gathered at the scene, Carr was arrested on a charge of Attempted Murder.

Carr was transported to the Hernando County Detention Center where he is being held without bond due to the domestic nature of the charge.
